Decision making is an unavoidable part of our lives. The closer one gets to graduation the more stressful some of these decisions can seem. Is the next right step getting a job? Going to grad school? Volunteering? Religious life?

The Ignatian Discernment Workshop-Retreat is an opportunity for upperclassmen/women to explore what St. Ignatius of Loyola (the founder of the Jesuits) has taught us about discernment and decision making. Learn how to make decisions in a way that engages your entire person -- your mind, heart and soul, and gives you the tools to take life’s next right step.
