Discovering Peru:
Language, Church and Society in Context

Summer 2016
(May 16 - June 24)

Villa El Salvador, Lima, Peru

6-week immersion Program
• Daily service sites in Villa El Salvador; an urban slum in Lima, Peru
• Language immersion
• Weekly home visits
• Room and board at a retreat center in Villa El Salvador
• Faith-based reflection and sharing

9 credits (6 minimum)
• THL 343: Ecclesiology in Context: The Church in Peru
  (CORE A and Global Studies Credit, SAM Course for Honors Students)
  Thomas Kelly, Theology

• SOC 102: Social Problems
  (CORE A and Global Studies Credit)
  Kyle Woolley, Sociology

• 3 hours of Spanish: class designed to meet needs and levels of students enrolled in the program
  (CORE, may apply to major or minor)
  Jose Miguel Lemus, Spanish

For more information, questions, or an application, please contact:
Dr. Thomas Kelly at: thomaskelly@creighton.edu (Humanities 126) or
Dr. Jose Miguel Lemus at: JoseMiguelLemus@creighton.edu (Hitchcock 1st floor)